To our patrons:

FEES: As this Winter 2004-05 issue of the Program Guide & Class Catalog went to press, Mayor and Council were scheduled to address possible fee changes for some Parks and Recreation programs and services for Fiscal Year 2004-05. Fees as shown in this catalog are valid for winter classes and programs, but please note that fees may be subject to change for future sessions. See the Parks and Recreation website at: www.tucsonaz.gov/parksandrec for the most up-to-date information on fee changes.

ACCURACY: Our goal is to assure each edition is free of errors, however, there are times when errors in dates, times, rates or registration/program information do occur. We will do everything possible to correct such errors, and we appreciate your patience and understanding when these situations arise.

Parks and Recreation Director

Fred H. Gray, Jr., Director

I'm the new kid on the block here at Parks and Recreation, and I wanted to take this opportunity to say how delighted I am to be in Tucson.

I look forward to working with the fine professionals at the Parks and Recreation Department to meet the leisure and recreation needs of the entire Tucson community – a community that now will become a new home for my family and me.

You might say Parks and Recreation is in my blood. Next year will be the 30th year that I have been working in that profession and I look forward to many more here in Tucson.

Over the next few months, I will be spending a lot of time learning about this great community. Throughout my career, I have found there are two very effective ways to learn about a community. The first is to get out, become involved in it and see it for myself, and the second is to listen to what folks are telling me—not only to City of Tucson officials or Parks and Recreation staff, but especially to you, the citizens of our diverse community.

An important part of my community service here will be to get out into the community as often as I can and to meet and listen to what all of you have to say.

If I were asked what message I would like to send to our community as I start my career here, it would simply be to remind you that Parks and Recreation is all about people. People just like you. People who are your neighbors and friends. And people who are dedicated and committed to serving you and our community.

We are here for you. I encourage everyone to take advantage of the many fine programs, services and activities that are offered to help you have fun and lead a more active and healthy lifestyle.
